Subject : Your RTI application dated 05.11.2020 under RTI Act 2005.

Sir,

The office of the Commission is in receipt of your application dated 06.11.2020 under section 6 (1) RTI Act 2005 seeking information by the PIO.

Applicant has sought the information as under:-

No	Information Sought	Information Provided
1	Please provide copies of documents related to the electricity tariff effective from 1 st April, 2020 such as proceedings of hearing suggestions/objections received, arguments, final order passed by MERC.	Didn't specify which information required. Request you to kindly ask specific information and send new RTI application. We will provide relevant document/ information as per the RTI Act, 2005 under section 2(f).*  Kindly refer our Tariff Orders are available in public domain on the Commission's website, which are available in downloadable format on Commission's websites www.merc.gov.in

* According to section 2(f) of the Act 'Information' means 'any material in any form'. Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances & Pensions Department of Personnel Training No. 11/2/2008-IR dated 10th July, 2008. Careful reading of the definition of 'Information' and 'right to information' makes it clear that a citizen has a right to get the material, inspect the material, take notes from the material, take extracts or certified copies of the material, take samples of the material, take the material in the form of diskettes etc. The PIO is required to supply such material to the citizen who seeks it. The Act, however, does not require the PIO to deduce some conclusion from the 'material' and supply the 'conclusion' so deduced to the applicant. The PIO is required to supply the 'material, in form as held by the public authority and is not required to do research on behalf of the citizen to deduce anything from the material and then supply it to him.
