Daily Order

Heard the representatives of the Petitioner and the Respondents.

The Commission directed Respondent No .1 as follows;

- 1) To give a list of documents required under this Case of Open Access transaction to the Petitioner which are to be fulfilled by the Petitioner.

- 2) The Commission asked the Respondent to work out their responses to two scenarios;
- i) Where the State is not in a position to export power;
  - ii) Where the State has excess power for a certain period and would choose to export/sell it outside the State.

Hence the Commission directs MSLDC to develop comprehensive sets of issues clearly segregating Legal and technical issues for facilitating such transactions.

The Commission directed Respondent No .1 to submit the above documents within four working days from date of this Order, with a copy to the Petitioner.

Petitioner is directed to submit its reply on affidavit, well within next date of hearing.

Sr. Advocate for the Petitioner requested for his non –availability on certain dates, hence, posted the matter for further hearing on Wednesday, 30 April, 2014.
