Daily Order

- (i) Representative for the Respondents were present and no one appeared on behalf of the Petitioner before the Commission.
- (ii) The Commission noted with the displeasure that MSEDCL had not submitted its written say even at the hearing. The Commission has been consistently warning MSEDCL about its cavalier attitude toward response to Petitions. The Commission, in the absence of the written response duly submitted to the Commission for the purpose of the hearing, assumes that MSEDCL has nothing to say and has no response to the issues raised in the Petition. The Commission will proceed in this Case on that assumption.
- (iii) The Commission hereby also directs to all the Parties appearing before this Commission that, all their submissions/replies shall reach the office of the Commission,24 Hrs prior to the respective hearings or the specific date of submission as directed by this Commission, failing which this Commission will presume that the parties have nothing to submit on record.

The Case is reserved for Order.
