3. Considering the difficulty of arguing Counsel of the Petitioner, the Commission adjourned the hearing and allowed the Petitioner to file Rejoinder within two weeks with copy served on all parties in the matter.
4. The Commission expressed displeasure about parties seeking adjournments at the last moment as it is not only results in wastage of precious time and resources of all concerned but also leads to losing an opportunity of scheduling other cases which are ready for arguments. The Commission expects the parties to be more sensitive on this aspect and will honour the schedule of hearing in future.
